The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday October 17, to Tuesday October 20, 1761.

AT the Court of St. James's, the 19th Day of October, 1761,

PRESENT,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty Second Day of July last, to promise and declare, (amongst other Things) That the Bounties of Five Pounds for every able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every ordinary Seaman, should be paid to every such able and ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twelfth Day of September last, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board such Tenders as should be employed for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And that a Bounty of Thirty Shillings should be paid to every able bodied Landman not above the Age of Thirty Five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the said Twelfth Day of September, in like Manner voluntarily enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and that a Reward of Two Pounds for every able, and Thirty Shillings for every ordinary Seaman, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who should secret themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service. And whereas the Time limited for paying the said Bounties and Rewards hath been extended to the Thirty First Day of this Instant October; And it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some longer Time; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, as it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards, be prolonged and extended from the said Thirty First Day of this Instant October, to the Twelfth Day of December next inclusive. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Blair.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 19th Day of October, 1761,

PRESENT,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 30th of April last, for prohibiting the Exporting out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire upon the 29th Day of this Instant October—And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some longer Time: His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, Require, Prohibit and Command, That no Person or Persons whatsoever (except the Master General, Lieutenant General, or Principal Officers of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time, during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said 29th Day of this Instant October, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on Board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the Twenty Ninth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, entituled, "An Act to impower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt Petre, and to enforce "the Law for impowering His Majesty to prohibit "the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of "Arms and Ammunition; and also to impower His "Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt "Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition." And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Blair.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council, of the Town and County of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, has been presented to His Majesty by Matthew Ridley, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff and Common Council of the Town and County of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, in Common Council assembled.

ACCEPT, most gracious Sovereign, our most chearful and unfeigned Congratulations on the important and interesting Event of your Majesty's Nuptials; on which happy Occasion, we cannot but adore the Divine Goodness, in pointing out to your Majesty's Choice, a Princess, amiably eminent for the Beauties of Her Mind and Person, and by Her Conduct reflecting Honor on the illustrious House from whence she sprung.

May the Almighty bless your Majesty and your Royal Consort with a Progeny, resembling you in all those Royal Virtues, which add a Lustre to a Crown! May every connubial Happiness attend you! And may there never be wanting one of your Descendants to assert the Liberty, and vindicate the Rights of a grateful, free and happy People.

Given under our Common Seal, the fifth Day of October, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixty one.

The following Address of the Governor, Assistants, Wardens, and Fellowship of Merchant Adventurers of the Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne, has been presented to His Majesty by Matthew Ridley, Esq; Governor of the said Company, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Governor, Assistants, Wardens, and Fellowship of Merchant Adventurers

[Price Three Pence.]

turers of the Town and County of Newcaſtle upon Tyne.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Governor, Aſſiſtants, Wardens, and Fellowſhip of Merchant Adventurers of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, crave Leave moſt humbly to preſent our dutiful Congratulations on your Majeſty's Auſpicious Nuptials, and to teſtify our Joy on an Event of ſuch univerſal Satisfaction to your Majeſty's faithful Subjects. The Alliance with a Princeſs ſo diſtinguiſhed for every Virtue and amiable Accompliſhment, and of a Family ever ſteady in the Support of the Proteſtant Religion, gives the moſt pleaſing Proſpect of a long Continuance to the Happineſs now ſo perfectly enjoyed under your Majeſty's wiſe, mild, and gracious Government.

We ſincerely pray the Divine Providence to endow your Majeſty with every publick as well as private Bleſſing; and that you may, to the unſpeakable Comfort of your grateful People, long live, and ſee a numerous Progeny imitating the great and glorious Example of their Royal Parents, Guardians of Liberty, revered and honoured by free and happy Britons.

Given under our Common Seal the Sixth Day of October, 1761.

The following Addreſs of the Maſter, Pilots and Seamen of the Trinity Houſe in Newcaſtle upon Tyne, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Matthew Ridley, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the Town of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Maſter, Pilots and Seamen of the Trinity Houſe in Newcaſtle upon Tyne.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Maſter, Pilots and Seamen of the Trinity Houſe in Newcaſtle upon Tyne, humbly beg Leave to preſent our ſincere Congratulations on the happy Event of your Majeſty's Marriage.

We moſt earneſtly wiſh and pray, that every conjugal Felicity may attend your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort; and that the Religion and Liberties of Britain may be preſerved to the lateſt Poſterity, by a Race of Princes deſcended from you both.

In Teſtimony whereof we have cauſed our Common Seal to be hereunto affixed the 7th Day of October, 1761.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes, of the Borough of Huntingdon, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Robert Jones, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes, of your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Huntingdon.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes, of your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Huntingdon, with Hearts full of Joy, beg Leave once more to approach your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, with our moſt ſincere Congratulations on the many glorious Events by which your Majeſty's Reign has been already rendered conſpicuous to the whole World: Events, that cannot fail of contributing greatly to the preſent and future Credit, Power, and Proſperity of theſe Kingdoms. And we take this Opportunity more particularly to expreſs our hearty Concurrence in the univerſal Joy of the Nation, on Account of the Bleſſings your Majeſty is like to enjoy, and afterwards to entail upon your People, from the Choice you have made of a Princeſs for your Conſort, endowed with every valuable Qualification and diſtinguiſhed Virtue; and who, we truſt in the Almighty, will bleſs your Majeſty with a numerous Offspring, who will perpetuate the mild and gentle Maxims of Government, by which your Majeſty has endeared yourſelf to your moſt happy and grateful Subjects. It will be our conſtant Prayer, that your Majeſty's Reign may be long, as we are already well aſſured that it will be wiſe and glorious.

In Witneſs whereof, we have hereunto ſet the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough, the thirteenth Day of October, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-one.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Haſting in the County of Suſſex, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Honourable James Brudenell, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Haſting, in the County of Suſſex.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Haſting in the County of Suſſex, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, with our hearty and moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Nuptials. We are truly ſenſible of the Benefits and Advantages we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and good Government, and are deeply touched with a Senſe of Gratitude, ready and deſirous, on every Occaſion, to ſhew ourſelves dutiful and loyal Subjects. At this Time a ſignal Opportunity offers, when the whole Nation rejoices with us, that your Majeſty has made Choice of a Royal Conſort, deſcended from an illuſtrious Family, remarkable for their firm and conſtant Zeal for the Proteſtant Religion; a Princeſs poſſeſſed of the moſt amiable Qualifications, and endowed with the moſt ſhining Virtues. May a numerous Progeny, great, good, and amiable as their Royal Parents, be the bleſſed Fruit of this auſpicious Marriage; that the Glory and Proſperity which the Britiſh Dominions enjoy under your Majeſty's Reign, may by their Means be tranſmitted to lateſt Poſterity.

Given under our Common Seal of the Town and Port of Haſting, the ſeventeenth Day of October, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty one.

Dublin Caſtle, October 6.

This Day arrived his Excellency the Earl of Halifax, Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom. His Excellency was received, at his Landing, by the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Sheriffs of Dublin. The Foot Forces in Garriſon lined the Streets through which his Excellency (attended by a Squadron of Horſe) proceeded, amidſt the Acclamations of the People, with the uſual Ceremony, to the Caſtle, where, in Council, his Excellency took the Oaths appointed to be taken by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and received the Sword from their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices: After which, the Great Guns in His Majeſty's Park the Phœnix were fired, and anſwered by Vollies from the Regiments on Duty, which were drawn out upon College Green: And his Excellency repairing to the Preſence Chamber, received there the Compliments of the Nobility and other Perſons of Diſtinction, upon his ſafe Arrival to take upon him the Government of this Kingdom.

THE Creditors of Elias Lock, late of Golden Lane near Cripplegate, London, Grocer, who was diſcharged at the laſt Quarter Seſſions held at Kingſton upon Thames in the County of Surry, (under the Compulſive Clauſe in the Act of Parliament made for Relief of Inſolvent Debts) are deſired to meet at the Buſh Tavern at Alderſgate, London, on Friday the 23d of this Inſtant, at Six o'Clock in the Afternoon, in order to chuſe one or more Aſſignee or Aſſignees of his Eſtate and Effects.

Corke, Auguſt 29, 1761.

WHEREAS the Widow Laulhé and Son, late of the City of Corke, Merchants, obtained one or more promiſſory Note or Notes, for conſiderable Sums of Money, ſigned for us by Paul Maylor, our late Caſhier, but without our Privity, and not for our Uſe, or upon our Account, and payable to them, or to Peter Laulhé, for which Note or Notes no Value was given either to us, or the ſaid Paul Maylor. And whereas the ſaid Laulhé and Son have ſince failed in their Circumſtances, and a Bill having been filed againſt them in our Names in the Court of Chancery in Ireland, to oblige them to deliver up to us ſuch Note or Notes, they have ſtood out Proceſs of Contempt for not anſwering, and refuſe to deliver up ſuch Note or Notes to us, or to produce the ſame: And whereas the ſaid Paul Maylor hath in other Inſtances ſigned Notes for us without our Privity, for which we never got any Value, and which he never entered in our Books; we think it neceſſary to caution all Perſons againſt accepting in Payment, or negociating any Note ſigned for us, and payable to, or endorſed by the ſaid Laulhé and Son, or the ſaid Peter Laulhé; and from accepting in Payment or negociating any Note ſigned for us by the ſaid Paul Maylor, he having in many Inſtances abuſed the Truſt repoſed in him by us.

Lawton, Carleton, and Feray.

THESE are to give Notice to the Heirs of the late Meſſrs. James Tucker and John Edmonds, who were Merchants and Partners at Alicante in Spain, and who left that Place and retired to England in the Year 1701, that by applying to John Banks, Eſq; His Majeſty's Conſul at Carthagena in Old Spain, they will hear of ſomething to their Advantage; and they are hereby deſired to let the ſaid Conſul know how to direct to them: And in order to prevent any fallacious Claims being made by Perſons who have no Right, the true Heirs are deſired to ſend over the proper Proofs of their being ſuch, which any Proctor in Doctors Commons will put them in the right Way to do.

Carthagena, Sept. 16, 1761. John Banks.

THE Executors of Mr. John Martindale, late of Liverpoole in the County of Lancaſter, Gentleman, deceaſed, do hereby give Notice, that they intend, without Delay, to make a Dividend of the Money ariſing from Sale of his Eſtate of Inheritance, and that any of his Relations, or Perſons claiming any Right or Title thereto, who have not already made their Claims, are to give Notice thereof to Mr. William Statham, Attorney at Law in Liverpoole aforeſaid, and make out their Claims, on or before the 2d Day of November next, or they will be excluded the Benefit of the ſaid Dividend. And for further Particulars all Perſons intereſted, may in the mean Time apply to the ſaid Mr. Statham.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commiſſion of Bankrupt awarded and iſſued forth againſt Frederick De Chevrigny, late of Fen Court Fenchurch Street, London, Sugar Broker, are deſired to meet the Aſſignees of the ſaid Bankrupt's Eſtate and Effects, on Friday next, at Six of the Clock in the Afternoon, at the Paul's Head Tavern near Guildhall, London, in order to aſſent to or diſſent from the ſaid Aſſignees commencing one or more Suit or Suits at Law or in Equity relating to the Eſtate and Effects of the ſaid Bankrupt, and to their ſubmitting to Arbitration any Diſputes concerning the ſame Eſtate and Effects.

WHEREAS a Commiſſion of Bankrupt hath been lately awarded againſt Charles Villeneau, late of the Iſland of Jamaica, but now of London, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman; and there is Reaſon to believe that the greateſt Part of his Effects are now concealed, the Aſſignees therefore give Notice, that ſuch Perſon or Perſons who ſhall make a Diſcovery of any Money or Effects of the ſaid Bankrupt, which are concealed, ſhall receive a Reward after the Rate of Forty Pounds for every Hundred Pounds of the nett Produce of ſuch Monies or Effects as ſhall be recovered by ſuch Diſcovery, on Application to Mr. Henry Jones, Attorney at Law, in Dove Court, Lombard Street.

WHereas a Commiſſion of Bankrupt is awarded and iſſued forth againſt Hannah Gilbody, now or late of Liverpoole, in the County of Lancaſter, Claypotter, Dealer and Chapwoman, and ſhe being declared a Bankrupt, is hereby required to ſurrender herſelf to the Commiſſioners in the ſaid Commiſſion named, or the major Part of them, on the 17th and 18th of November, and 1ſt of December next, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, on each of the ſaid Days, at the Houſe of James Wrigley, known by the Sign of the Golden Lyon in Dale Street in Liverpoole aforeſaid, and make a full Diſcovery and Diſcloſure of her Eſtate and Effects; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their Debts, and at the Second Sitting to chuſe Aſſignees, and at the laſt Sitting the ſaid Bankrupt is required to finiſh her Examination, and the Creditors are to aſſent to or diſſent from the Allowance of her Certificate. All Perſons indebted to the ſaid Bankrupt, or that have any of her Effects, are not to pay or deliver the ſame but to whom the Commiſſioners ſhall appoint, but give Notice to Mr. William Statham, Attorney, in Liverpoole.

WHereas a Commiſſion of Bankrupt is awarded and iſſued forth againſt William Bramwell, now or late of Liverpoole, in the County of Lancaſter, Butcher, Dealer and Chapman, and he being declared a Bankrupt, is hereby required to ſurrender himſelf to the Commiſſioners in the ſaid Commiſſion named, or the major Part of them, on the 17th and 18th of November, and 1ſt of December next, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, on each of the ſaid Days,
